becoming well-rounded

citizens through ACTIVITIES

"Donna Baby" Dobson was selected by the judges as Miss Arrowhead on Friday night. "Gay Cuddles" Swann received the title on Saturday night.

Debbie Williams and Sammy Stone were chosen by the junior high school grade students as Princess and Prince. Dana Allison and Mike Ramsey were given the honor of Queen and King.

Awards

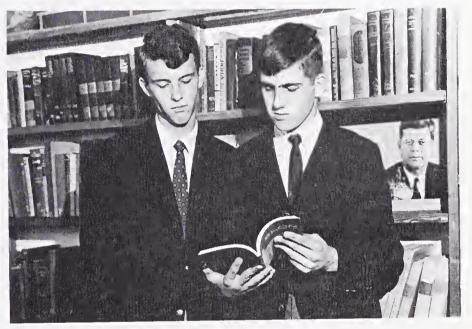

Junior Marshals are chosen on the basis of their high academic average. Last year's Juniors were: Ethel Sword; Loretta Evans; Randy Saunders; Johnsie Elliott, chief Marshal; Phyllis Raffield; and Robin Snyder.

Recipient of the D.A.R. citizenship award this year is Loretta Freeman. She was chosen on the basis of her leadership ability, dependability, patriotism and academic ability.

. winning an award

O.F.'s Morehead Scolarship nominees, Mike Hogan and Bobby Sutton, were selected on the basis of their academic and leadership capability.

In an art contest sponsored in February by the Librarian's Club, the winners were Terry Frick, second place; Robert Twitty, first place; and Marshall Walker, third place.

. . . winning first place at the editor's round table

Billy Early, Robert Twitty, Bill Nichols and Bobby Sutton sell a record number of suscriptions for annuals.

Mrs. Betty Marston, sponsor; and Loretta Freeman, editor; share ideas in order to compose a prize-winning annual.

The Annual Staff depends on the help of Janet Watson and Nancy Gilliland for typing large quantities of copy.

THE ARROWHEAD STAFF

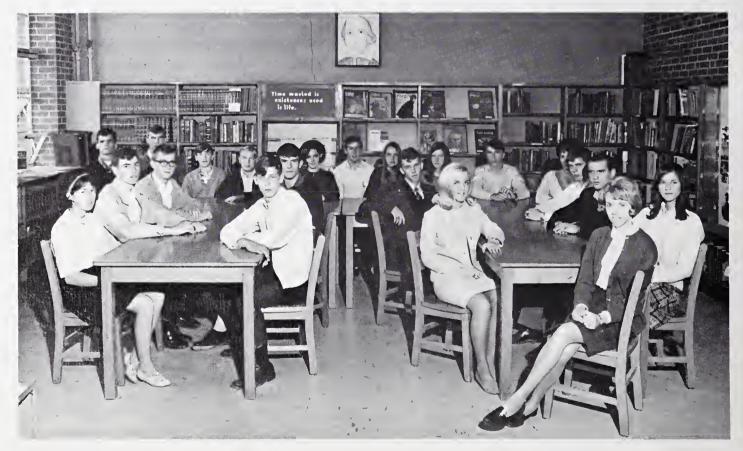

With the idea that a "picture is worth a thousand words" the annual staff has endeavored to present to you "Happiness is" in a new style of THE ARROWHEAD. Row one: Jo Ann Lunsford, Robin Snyder, Loretta Freeman, Bill Nichols, Robert Twitty, Row two: Steve Robertson, John Lipe, Craig Grant, Bob Sutton, Jimmy Brown, Mrs. Marston.

... being elected to Student Council

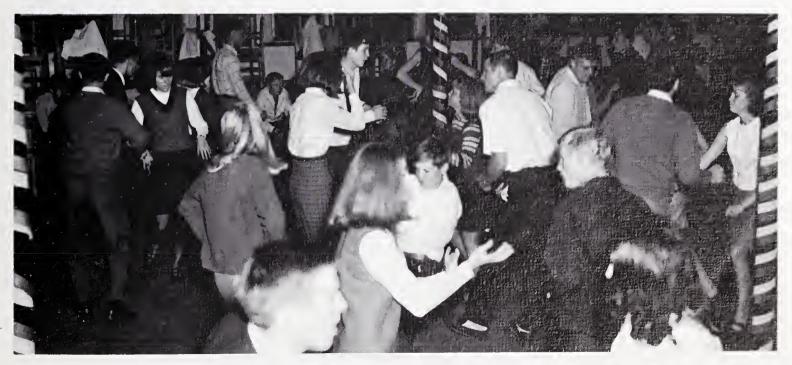

Student's vivid imaginations are portrayed in clever campaign posters.

After a highly competitive campaign the officers of the Student Council are elected. Mike Hogan, President; Philip Steppe, Vice-president; Loretta Freeman, reporter; Penny Thorpe, Secretary; and Jerry Harris, Treasurer.

A dance is sponsored by the Student Council after the Homecoming football game each year.

To add plenty of noise and enthusiasm to our games are the Pep Club members who include: A. Burgin, J. Lewis, P. Freeman, L. Freeman, S. Silver, E. Morris, S. Byrd, D. Stone. Row two: Mr. Dobson, J. Elliott, B. Early, D. Noblitt, S. Griggs, J. Moore,

Mr. Dobson, sponsor, suggests activities to the officers: Raymond Hartwell, vice-president; Ann Burgin, treasurer-reporter; Ronnie Condrey, president; Beverly Early, secretary.

Interact

Sponsored by the Rotary Club the Interact finds good examples of leadership for their officers to follow. Vice-president, Jimmy Brown; sponsor, Mr. Ken Griffin; president, Mike Hogan; treasurer, Mike Ramsey; and secretary, Bill Nichols.

. . . giving

The Interact Club finds good use for time and money. By collecting books and clothes to send to missionaries in Brazil and donating $100.00 for the lights on the athletic field, the Interact is one of the busiest clubs in the school and community. Row one: Bill Nichols, Jimmy Brown, Mike Hogan, Mr. Ken Griffin, sponsor, Row two: Craig Grant, Roger Bradley Bob Sutton, Billy Early. Row three: Philip Steppe, Louis Shirlen, Tim Allison, Raymond Hartwell. Row four: Mike Ramsey, Allen Baker, Ronnie Condrey, and Mark Baker.

. . . encouragement for future teachers

the F. T. A.

Elizabeth Knupp was the recipient of the 1967 F.T.A. teacher's scholarship.

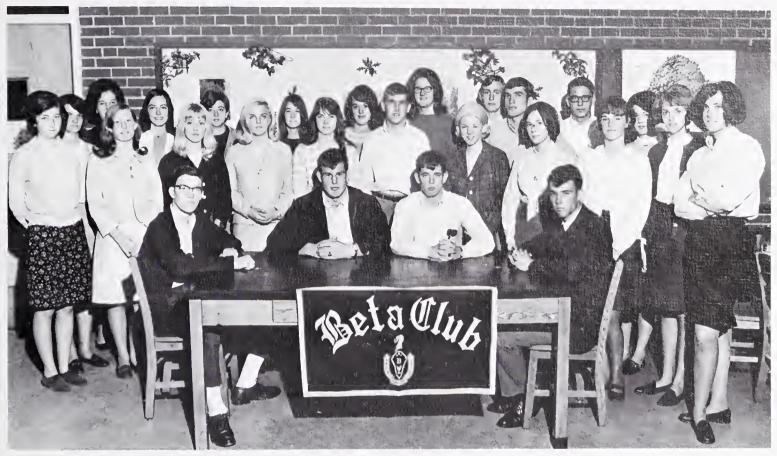

Elected to serve as F.T.A. officers are Dana Allison, reporter; Sherry Griggs, parlimentarian; Kaye Elliott, secretary-treasurer; Ann Burgin, historian; Robin Snyder, vice-president; and Jo Ann Lunsford, president. Mrs. Phyllis Setzer sponsors the club.

A large F.T.A. group shows interest in teaching as a career.

. . reciving an invitation to join

the Beta Club

In order to qualify to be a Beta Club member, a student must have an 88 average, a C in citizenship and must be approved by faculty and members. Row One: S. Effler, A. Baker, P. Steppe, M. Hogan. Row Two: K. Allison, G. Allison, M. Gilliam, L. Freeman, E. Sword, B. Sutton, S. Griggs, C.

Bryant, N. Gilliland, P. Thorpe, R. Snyder. Row Three: N. Ramsey, Mrs. Martha Fender, club sponsor; J. Williams, D. Allison, J. Elliott, J. Moore, P. Raffield, T. Allison, J. Brown, B. Nichols, R. Robinson.

The Beta Club's major project for the year is raising money for a scholarship to be awarded to one of the club members. Managing the Club activities are Johnsie Elliott, secretarytreasurer; Justine Williams, reporter; Robin Snyder, program chairman; Loretta Evans, president; Mrs. Martha Fender, sponsor; and Judy Moore, vice-president. ... preparing a Mother-Daughter banquet., raising money for a F.H.A. schlorship

With the help of their sponsor, Mrs. Sue Glovier, the officers, LeGretta Keaton, treasurer; Cathy Logan, parlimentarian; Revonda Robinson, vice-president; Nancy Lunsford, secretary; Linda Edney, president; and Glenna Allison, reporter; execute a main project: carrying fruit baskets to the ill.

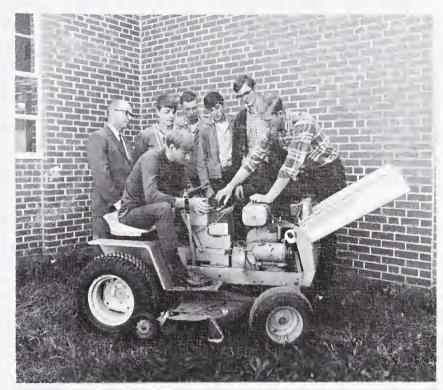

Each year as one of their projects, the F.H.A. sponsors a Mother-Daughter banquet.

. . . winning the land judging contest

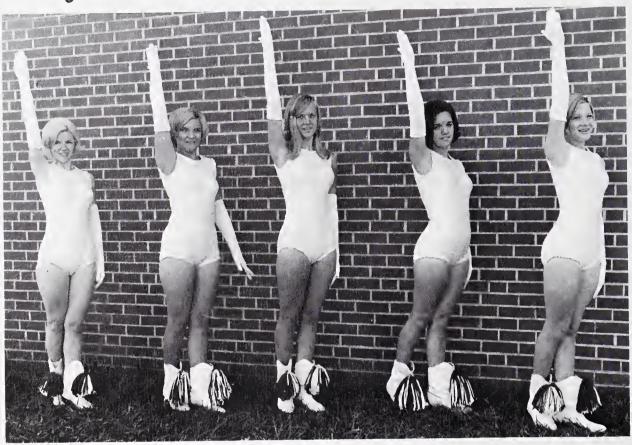

Officers are Merrill Davis, president; Mr. Donald Anderson, sponsor; Hugh Gilliam, reporter; Allen Vess, secretary; Carter Harris, treasurer; Raymond Moore, sentinel; and Wayne Lytle, vice-president.

To win a land judging contest requires extensive knowledge. Winning first place in the contest at Chase High School in November were five boys from O.F's F.F.A. They are Carter Harris, Allen Kerlee, Hugh Gilliam, and Lionel Walker.

. . a good sound

With flashing batons, lovely smiles, and a lively step, the majorettes march at the head of the band and perform at football games: Sherry Griggs, Dana Allison, Doris Simmons, Kay Harris, and Dana Noblitt.

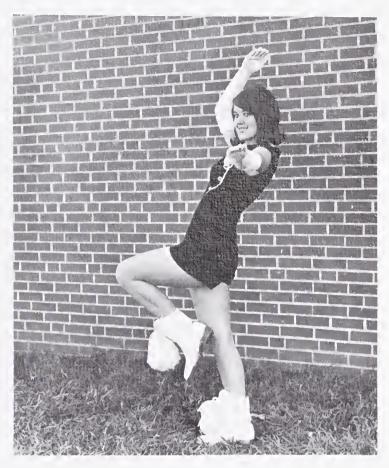

A pulse setting beat and a brassy blare describes these musicians. Row one: L. Silvers, P. Early, C. Griffen, V. Crawford, R. Condrey, G. Beach, and M. Silvers. Row two: K. Lonon, J. Lowdermilk, B. Chrisaw, D. Autrey, D. Noblitt, W. Lunsford, J. Glovier, R. Harmon, R. Vess, W. Whitson, and G. Miller. Row three: D. Harris, D. Smith, K. Elliott, H. Josey, Evon Kimbrell, a very capable head majorette, works with the line.

Band

Judy Moore concludes her Senior year as Drum Majorette.

Assisting Mr. W. Rhodes are the band officers. Sharon Guthrie, secretary; Debbie Johnson, vice-president; Mike Hogan, president; Pam Early and Nancy Jones, librarians.

. . . having a "nose" for news

Responsible for guiding the Health Career Club are Nancy Allison, secretary; Judy Lewis, reporter; Mrs. Truby Painter, sponsor; Phyllis Raffield, treasurer; Ronnie Condrey, president, Mike Ramsey, vice-president.

The Health Career Club has a definite purpose to accomplish. The club attempts to encourage high school students to become interested in medical careers of some form. With a membership of 33 the club explores possible medical careers.

Assisting Students

. . . lending a helping hand

To become a bus driver a person has to be a careful driver. He has to take a course in bus training and pass tests to prove his ability to drive a bus carefully. The bus drivers this year are C. Smith, T. McEntire, S. Painter, M. Walker, B. Early, G. Collins, G. Stevens, W. Kelly, M. Davis, D. Shirlen.

With students checking out books daily it is the chorc of L. Walker, B. Joyner, N. Allison, C. Bryant, S. Williams, L. White, Librarian M. Washburn, P. Thorpe, P. Bradley, B. Morris, M. Morris, J. Bailey, A. Bailey, to keep the books in order.

. . . assuming responsibility

Jimmy Brown assumes the responsibility of carrying mail to the Post Office while Bill Nichols helps with a package.

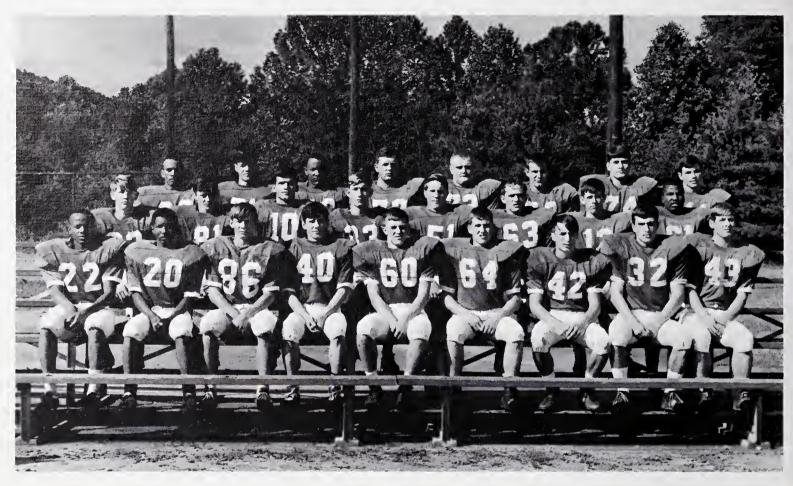

Lunch tickets are sold daily by Sharon Noblitt, Phyllis Raffield and Sandra Webb, to the starving students.

Don Dobson poses with the 1967 Golf team composed of Dean Thomason, Mike Hogan, Donnie Lytle, and Bill Nichols.

. . . a hole in one

Mike Hogan, beaten only once in regular season matches during the past two years, has been an outstanding player for the team. Mike placed second in the Western District golf match and sixth in the 1967 state competition.

Hard hitting, strong-armed catcher John Lipe returns as a Senior this year to lead the Redskins. The rugged Lipe, as a sophomore and a junior, teamed with right-hand pitcher Wayne McCauley to form one of the best high school batteries in the past two years.

Baseball

Leader of the Redskins to First Place in the McDowell County Conference and Second place in the Skyline Conference for the past two years was coach Ken Griffin. Among his requirements for each member of the team are daily practice and promptness for practice; boys of good athletic ability, determination, and hustle; and boys with good school work and good character.

Track

Raymond Hartwell who placed first in the conference shot-put division shows his form during a strenuous practice.

Under the careful guidance of Coach Frank Watkins, individual honors were won at Conference Meets. Phil Steppe, first in mile run; Ronnie Evans, first and second in low hurdle; Bill Matthews, second in the mile high jump; and Raymond Hartwell, first in shot-put events.

Elementary Classes

Mr. Woody Rhodes delights audiences, directs the band, and conducts elementary music classes.

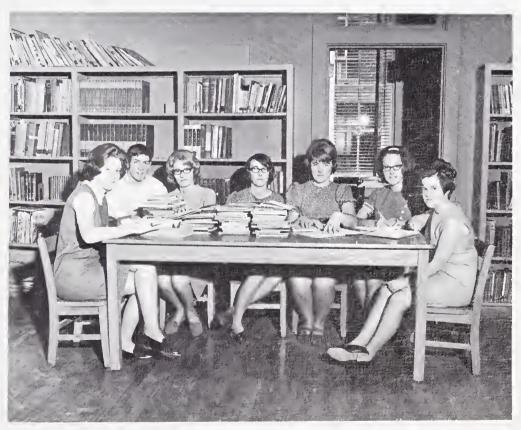

Miss Greene, elementary librarian, guides young minds in their search for knowledge.

Mighty Mite and Midget teams are newly organized and will provide our school with future football Redskins.

Helping students check books in and out, processing many new books, and keeping the shelves tidy are a few of the many tasks high school students face while helping Miss Greene in the elementary library. The library aides are Carolyn Smith, Barry Early, Phyllis Connor, Cathy Connor, Delaine Davis, Janet Connor and Edith Grant.

Reddy To Rock

Reddy Kilowatt never misses a party. In fact, without him, things would be pretty dull. Think of it: no stereos, televisions, electric guitars or ice cubes.

Thanks to Reddy there are over 160 flameless electric servants that make modern living comfortable, economical and fun. When you have a home of your own, there will probably be even more.
